

ST DENYS CHURCH EVINGTON, BULLETIN Sunday 7th December 2025, Second Sunday of Advent

Readings for today: Isaiah 11 vs 1-10; Matthew 3 vs 1-12

Dear Friends, the traditional Advent season invites us into four weeks of deep reflection on the advent, or arrival, of God in Jesus of Nazareth, as well as on his promised return. From focused prayer and Scripture reading to candled wreaths and embellished calendars, Advent celebrations vary widely. However, all Advent practices share a heightened anticipation for God's arrival. More than a countdown to Christmas, Advent embraces the way of Jesus and encourages hopeful waiting, courageous peace-making, resilient joy, and self-giving love in our still-suffering world.

For many, "advent" means a countdown to Christmas. Whether we envision candy-filled Advent calendars or lights draped over houses with nativity scenes out front, Advent marks a happy season of celebrating.

But the word "advent" comes from the Latin adventus, which is about a "coming" or an "arrival." The Latin translation of the New Testament uses adventus to describe God the Son arriving on Earth, born as Jesus of Nazareth during the 1st century C.E. (see Acts 7:52). Still, throughout Church history, Advent has more traditionally referred to Jesus' future arrival, when he comes to complete his work of restoring all creation (see Matthew 24:27; 1 Corinthians. 15:23; 1 Thessalonians. 3:13).

The Advent season leads to the celebration of Jesus' birth and also emphasizes his future arrival. It is a season that includes practices like prayer, giving to those in need, and worship (plus more, depending on the tradition). It reminds us that we are living during the time between Jesus' first and second advents, leading us to lament the hardships we experience in a still-broken world, while also forming us into people who wait with longing for the renewed world to come.

Celebrating Advent also means living it by practicing a generous way of love and care for our neighbours as we partner with Jesus to bring peace on Earth.

May your Advent season be filled with hope, peace, love and joy as we await the second coming of our Lord and Saviour. The Bible Project Guide
